

Fiftieth Birthday.

Although the weather was inclement on Friday the 13th of December, a party of friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. George Hann to celebrate that gentleman's 50th birthday anniversary. After spending a while in conversation, Mr. Hann, who was in McConnellsburg, arrived and was much surprised at finding many of his acquaintances assembled in his home, who began to wish him a Happy Birthday. In a short time a bounteous dinner was served which was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Hann received a number of gifts, among which was a rocking chair, and other useful gifts.

Those present were: Mrs. John Hoover, Mrs. Jonas Mellott, Mrs. B. H. Shaw, Mrs. M. G. Lamberson, Mrs. Bosler, Mrs. H. C. McClain, Elizabeth Laidig, Virginia Mathias, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sipe, Mr. and Mrs. George Hess, Russell Daniels, Clem Daniels, George Summers, John Hess, Dennis Hess, William Hann, and Charles Hann.

Birthday Party.

On Tuesday of last week, Blair S. Hess reached the seventeenth mile post in his journey through life, and that the event might be pleasantly impressed upon his memory, about thirty of his school mates and neighbors assembled at the home of his parents, ex-County Treasurer and Mrs. Sam A. Hess, Needmore, R. R. 2. The young folks played games and the older folks talked about—talked about—just whatever they thought about—and so the evening was passed along rapidly, when refreshments in the shape of plenty of cake, lemonade and candy were served. Instead of going home after the refreshments had been served, the youngsters played more games and the older people thought of more things to talk about, and the first thing they knew it was "to-morrow."

Blair is proud of the nice lot of presents he received.

One Hundred Per Cent.

The following schools have reached the 100 per cent. Junior Red Cross membership work during the past week.

TAYLOR.—Fairview School, taught by Miss Olive Clevenger; Waterfall School, taught by Prof N. E. M. Hoover; Cherry Grove School, taught by Mr. Howard Knepper.

TODD.—McGovern's School, taught by Miss Maye Pittman, and Scott's School, taught by Mr. Frank Pittman.

THOMPSON.—Boardyard School taught by Mr. Howard C. Peck.

The Chairman of the Junior Red Cross acknowledges, with thanks, receipt of $35.50 from the different Junior auxiliaries of the above schools.

Some Pigs.

Among the most successful pig raisers in the County is Robert I. Huston, near Hustontown. Of a litter farrowed on the 7th of last April, Mr. Huston recently butchered six as follows: The first at the age of 208 days, dressed 244 lbs.; the second, was 226 days old and dressed 251 lbs.; the next two at 229 days that dressed, respectively, 282½ and 295½; the other two at 252 days tipped the beam at 347½ and 370, respectively, making a total of 1790½ lbs. From these six pigs were made eight 50-lb cans of lard. Next! Come on, now; don't be bashful!

Engagement Announced.

At a dinner given at the home of Mrs. William Baumgardner, East Market Street, on Monday evening was announced the engagement of her daughter Miss Mary to Mr. Reed Brethered Bishop of Kennett Square, Pa. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Mrs. Lemuel Divens.

After a week's illness of flu followed by pneumonia, Mrs. Lemuel Divens died at her home at Knobsville, Tuesday morning, December 14, 1918, aged about 70 years. The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Divens, and ten children.

Educational Meeting.

The first local institute in Thompson township was held at Bald Eagle last Friday evening.

Questions for discussion: 1, Written Work; Value of and How Much Given? 2, How May We as teachers and Patrons Better Our School? 3, Red Cross Work in the School.

Very able and practical talks were given by the teachers present, namely, Thomas Truax, Jessie Yeakel, Flosse Sharpe, Wretha Winters and Howard Peck. Also Mr. Samuel L. Simpson and Mr. David Gregory gave very interesting talks. The school room was tastefully decorated and a good program was rendered by the school.—Flosse Sharpe, Secretary.

The second local institute of Belfast township was held at Philip Morgret's Saturday evening, December 21, 1918. The topics discussed were: 1, Discipline. 2, Grammar; and How Taught to all Grades. The following teachers were present: Mrs. Blanche H. Henshead, Mr. Guy Mellott, Miss Vernona Mellott and Charlie Peck.—Charlie Peck, Secretary.

The Thrice-A-Week Edition of the New York World in 1919

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly, No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

The value and need of a newspaper in the household was never greater than at the present time. We have been forced to enter the great world war and a large army of ours is already in France fighting great battles and winning magnificent victories. You will want to have all the news from our troops on the most momentous year in the history of our nation's battlefields, and 1919 promises to be our universe.

No other newspaper at so small a price will furnish such prompt and accurate news of these world shaking events. It is not necessary to say more.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.50 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS together for one year for $2.25.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

License Notice.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF FULTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA.

It is ordered that all applications for license for the sale of vinous, spiritous, malt, or brewed liquors, wholesale or retail, for the year 1919, will be heard on Tuesday, the 14th day of January, 1919, at 10 o'clock, a. m. of said day, at which time all persons applying or making objections to applications, will be heard by evidence, petition, remonstrance or counsel. There must be no communication at any time on the subject with the judges personally either by letter or any private way.

The petition, verified by affidavit of applicant, shall be in conformity with the requirements of the act of Assembly. Judgment bond shall be executed in the penal sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars, with not less than two reputable freeholders of the county of Fulton as sureties, each of them to be a bona fide owner of real estate in said county worth, over and above all incumbrances, the sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars or one sufficient surety where the same is a Security, Trust or Surety Company organized and existing under the laws of this Commonwealth or under the laws of any other state of the United States of America, duly authorized to do business within the State of Pennsylvania by the Insurance Commissioner thereof; to be approved by the Court granting such license and to be conditioned for the faithful observance of all the laws of this Commonwealth relating to the selling or furnishing of vinous, spiritous, malt, or brewed liquors, or any admixture thereof, and to pay all damages which may be recovered in any action which may be instituted against the licensee, under the provisions of any Act of the Assembly, and all costs, fines and penalties imposed, upon said licensee under any indictment violating any Act of Assembly relating to selling or furnishing liquors as aforesaid.

If any person is surety on more than one bond, he shall certify that he is worth four thousand ($4000) dollars over and above any previous bond he may be on as security. The sureties may be required to appear in Court and justify under oath.

The Court shall in all cases refuse the application whenever, in the opinion of the Court, having due regard for the number and character of the petitioners for and against the applications, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and entertainment of strangers and travelers, or that the applicant is not a fit person to whom such license should be granted.

Petitions must be filed with the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions not later than Saturday, the 21st day of December, 1918. Objections and remonstrances must be filed with the Clerk of said Court not later than Wednesday, the 1st day of January, 1919.

Upon sufficient cause being shown or proof being made to the Court that the party holding said license has violated any law of the Commonwealth relating to the sale of liquors, the Court shall, upon notice being given to the person licensee, revoke said license.

By the Court,
DONALD P. McPHERSON, P. J.

Attest:
B. FRANK HENRY, Clerk Q. S.
